TOP CO-EDUCATIONAL SCHOOL IN THE UK 2025 & 2026

Named The Sunday Times' Top Co-Educational School in the UK, Brighton College is a place where girls and boys thrive. The great honour that schools have is to help shape what our young people consider to be 'normal' – as they will take this with them into university, future careers and the rest of their lives.

At Brighton, it is just 'normal' that boys and girls have their lessons, their countless clubs and activities, their trips and their meals, and even lots of sport alongside one another. It is normal to have friends who are girls and to have friends who are boys. It is normal for boys to dance, for girls to play cricket, and for every individual, regardless of gender, to pursue the things they love and are passionate about, free from stereotypes and expectations. We think co-ed schools are kinder, gentler places. But, for us at Brighton College, it is just 'normal'!

“I wanted to study in the USA to balance my academic and fencing ambitions, and want to say a massive thank you to the Sixth Form team – their knowledge and support was invaluable.”

FROM Year 7 TO Princeton

“I am studying Chemical and Biological Engineering at Princeton University, on a fencing scholarship. Princeton was always my first choice because of its academic excellence, strong sense of community and outstanding fencing programme.

As a Team GB fencer, I've been fortunate to enjoy some incredible experiences, including winning the British Youth Championships (U16) in Women's Sabre and a bronze medal at the Junior World Cup in Budapest. Alongside fencing, I achieved 11 Grade 9s at GCSE and was honoured to receive a British Education Award recognising both my academic and sporting achievements.

I'm incredibly grateful for the support I received throughout my time at Brighton College, and am loving this exciting new chapter of my life in the United States.”

“Being at Brighton College for the whole school journey from Year 7 has made me who I am today. I'm now reading Mechanical Engineering at the University of Cambridge, and having the best time!

During my time at Brighton College, I combined my passion for engineering and science with a wide range of opportunities, from serving as President of our award-winning Robotics Club to taking part in the school's Strictly dance competition.

I was delighted to achieve seven A-levels, including six A*s and one A, and eleven Grade 9s at GCSE. I also received the Semiconductor Talent Award and an Arkwright National Scholarship, achieved Gold Awards in both the Chemistry and Physics Olympiads, and represented Sussex in archery.

I'm incredibly grateful for the opportunities and support I received at Brighton College.”

FROM Year 7 TO Cambridge

“Thank you to my teachers throughout my time at Brighton College, for the support, kindness, patience and expertise they have given me. I'm extremely grateful for the opportunities I have been offered.”
